

The majority of Waxcaps found in the UK can be seen in meadows from Autumn all the way into mid Winter. We recommend foraging for the Meadow Waxcap and the Snowy Waxcap only as due to habitat loss many Waxcaps are now rare, and some are toxic, great for photos but not to be picked.

